Wedding Receptions

Your Special Day

Making the wedding arrangements can be a stressful affair so it's important that you make the right choices along the way!

Choosing a good reception venue means choosing a partner that you can trust to take care of everything on the big day.

Our hotels are experienced in hosting a variety of weddings ranging from the simply elegant to the wildly extravagant.

We offer a range of packages and venues to suit every budget, and each one can be tailored to suit your individual tastes.

Choose one of our properties as the venue for your wedding and you can rest assured your special day is in safe hands.

Every wedding day should be a truly magical experience, just the way you always imagined it would be.

Our Wedding Service

From your initial enquiry, right up until the big day itself, our wedding planner will be at your service every step of the way.

To make your life easier we will offer you help and advice about everything from the decorations to the entertainment, all of which can be sourced from our carefully selected suppliers.

We'll also arrange an experienced Master of Ceremonies who will make sure everything runs smoothly on the day.

Complimentary Extras
